

Great is Thy Faithfulness

When Job lost his health, his wife, children, and all his means, his response was simple: I know that my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth. And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God; (Job 19:25-26) This was evidence of an unshakable faith that the Lord was with him and no matter what happened, he knew that the promise of his salvation was intact. Since the resurrection of Jesus, we Christians are guaranteed salvation if only we trust in the Savior. This is because of the faithfulness of the Christ, who endured the suffering and death on a cross for you and me.

If we call ourselves Christian, we must reflect Christ's faithfulness. We are now faced with an unprecedented series of events that are outside our control in the form of a virus that has made it impossible for us to function normally as a church. But the church's work continues and we must be faithful to that mission.

As the president of the congregation, I am imploring our members to continue to give their offerings to the church just as they would if everything was normal. If we fail in this, the church falters and is unable to continue its work. Grace has seen hard times before and has persevered due to the faithfulness of its members. I am certain that this faith, by the Grace of Christ Jesus, is still alive.

Tom Perryman
President
Grace Lutheran Church