Grace Notes is a weekly booklet compiled from various sources by Grace Lutheran Children's Ministry for use in service and at home to support families in teaching God's Word to their children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and all children, as God commanded in Deuteronomy 6:6-9, The Message.

Write these commandments that I've given you today on your hearts. Get them inside of you and then get them inside your children. Talk about them wherever you are, sitting at home or walking in the street; talk about them from the time you get up in the morning to when you fall into bed at night. Tie them on your hands and foreheads as a reminder; inscribe them on the doorposts of your homes and on your city gates.

Grace Notes

June 18-19, 2022

And you are God's children. That is why God sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts. The Spirit cries out, "Father, dear Father." So now you are not a slave; you are God's child, and God will give you what he promised, because you are his child.

Wise children take their fathers' advice. But a person who makes fun of wisdom won't listen to correction.

FAMILY TIME

Taken from "The Vocation of Raising in Children in the Faith: A Family-Centered Congregational Approach" workshop led by Rev. Dr. W. Mart Thompson, Concordia Seminary, St. Louis

Family is a fertile mission field created by God, with parents as the teachers. One teaching moment is daily devotions. The daily blessings we receive include:

- Connection with God
- Communication with your family
- Thanking God ...
- Seeking His guidance and help
- Learning our Savior's teachings.

Use the car ride to school, family meals, or just before bed to join as a family to talk with God. Start simple with a song or prayer and grow your devotion time to about 15 minutes.

Here are some starting family activities:

- Together say Luther's morning or evening prayer.
- Learn and Sing a hymn, even a verse at a time; Try "With the Lord Begin Your Task", LSB 869. Or "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow", LSB 805.
- Say the Lord's Prayer as a family.

Let us pray together.

Dear Heavenly Father,

You are the all powerful Lord. Your Word is strong. Lead us as we grow in faith and trust in You alone. Lead us to "Be Still" in Your Word so we can experience the Peace that is Yours alone. Bless our family in the study of Your Word. Keep us safe in the chaos of the world, and bring us safely home to You. In Jesus' name I pray.

* AMEN *
